- For businesses in these sectors with a rateable value of between £15,001 and £51,000, they will receive a grant of £25,000.

Employee Wage Support

- Under the Coronavirus Job Retention Scheme, all UK employers will be able to access support to continue paying part of their employees' salary for those employees that would otherwise have been laid off during this crisis.
- All UK businesses are eligible.
- To access the scheme
 - designate affected employees as 'furloughed workers,' and notify your employees of this change - changing the status of employees remains subject to existing employment law and, depending on the employment contract, may be subject to negotiation
 - submit information to HMRC about the employees that have been furloughed and their earnings through a new online portal (HMRC will set out further details on the information required)
 - HMRC will reimburse 80% of furloughed workers wage costs, up to a cap of £2,500 per month (including E'ers NI? TBC). HMRC are working urgently to set up a system for reimbursement. Existing systems are not set up to facilitate payments to employers.
- For employees
 - If an employer intends to access the Coronavirus Job Retention Scheme, they will need to classify them as a furloughed worker. This would mean that you are kept on the employer's payroll, rather than being laid off.
 - To qualify for this scheme, they should not undertake work for you while you are furloughed.
 - The employer could choose to fund the differences between this payment and the salary but does not have to.
 - It is intended for the Coronavirus Job Retention Scheme to run for at least 3 months from 1 March 2020, but will extend if necessary.

 - employers with fewer than 250 employees will be eligible - the size of an employer will be determined by the number of people they employed as of 28 February 2020
 - employers will be able to reclaim expenditure for any employee who has claimed SSP (according to the new eligibility criteria) as a result of COVID-19
 - employers should maintain records of staff absences and payments of SSP, but employees will not need to provide a GP fit note. If evidence is required by an employer, those with symptoms of coronavirus can get an isolation note from NHS 111 online and those who live with someone that has symptoms can get a note from the NHS website
 - eligible period for the scheme will commence the day after the regulations on the extension of SSP to those staying at home comes into force
 - the government will work with employers over the coming months to set up the repayment mechanism for employers as soon as possible

- You should contact your lender if you think you may potentially experience payment difficulties as a result of the coronavirus situation.
- Your lender shouldn't need any evidence that your income has been affected by coronavirus.
- Interest on your mortgage continues during the payment holiday
- Taking a payment holiday will not impact your credit score.
- We expect lenders to offer payment holidays to borrowers who may experience payment difficulties as a result of the coronavirus.
- If you are behind with your mortgage payments you can still have a payment holiday. You will need to discuss this with your lender.
- If you think you may experience payment difficulties and may need a payment holiday, you should speak to your lender in good time before the next payment is due.
- You can apply for a payment holiday at any time before this guidance is reviewed in 3 months. The payment holiday will not start, however, until it has been agreed with your lender.
- Repossessions - Lenders are temporarily stopping repossession actions
